Jennifer L. McCarthy graduated from Iona College with a B.S. in 1999 and earned her J.D. from New York Law School in 2004. She was admitted to practice in New York in 2005 and is a member of the Elder Law and Trusts and Estates Law Sections of the New York State Bar Association. She earned a Masters of Law in Taxation from New York Law School in 2013. She previously served on the Board of Trustees of Preston High School, Bronx, New York.

Ms. McCarthy joined Davidson, Dawson & Clark LLP in 2006 as an associate. Ms. McCarthy feels that the knowledge and resources at DD&C, coupled with traditional firm values, allow her to serve her clients in an efficient and effective manner. In addition to trusts and estates, she devotes a portion of her time to residential real estate transactions.

She has been named a “Rising Star” by New York Super Lawyers.

In her spare time, Ms. McCarthy is an avid runner and enjoys travelling with her husband, Denis.
